EQUALITY POLICY

Orpington Rovers Football Club is responsible for setting standards and values to apply throughout the Club at every level. Football belongs to and should be enjoyed by anyone who wants to participate in it.

Orpington Rovers Football Club in all its activities will not discriminate or in any way, treat anyone less favourably on grounds of age, gender, gender reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status, race, nationality, ethnic origin, colour, religion or belief, ability or disability. The Club will ensure it treats people fairly and with respect and that it will provide access and opportunities for all members of the community to take part in and enjoy its activities.

Orpington Rovers Football Club will not tolerate harassment, bullying, abuse or victimization of an individual, which for the purposes of this policy and the actions and sanction applicable is regarded as discrimination. This includes sexual or racially based harassment or other discriminatory behavior, whether physical or verbal. The Club will work to ensure that such behavior is met with appropriate action in whatever context it occurs.

Orpington Rovers Football Club is committed to taking positive action where inequalities exist and to the training and awareness raising events and activities in order to promote the eradication of discrimination and promote equality in football.

Orpington Rovers Football Club is committed to a policy of equal treatment of all members and requires all members to abide and adhere to these policies and the requirement of Equality Act 2010.

Orpington Rovers Football Club commits itself to the immediate investigation of any claims when brought to its attention, of discrimination on the above grounds and where such is found to be the case, a requirement that the practice stop and sanctions are imposed as appropriate.
